

Article 13 of National Chengchi University Regulations :

Students are required to pay all fees and complete all procedures within the deadline as stipulated in the enrollment notice. Those who fail to complete their enrollment and payment, application for suspension of study, or retention of student status two weeks after the deadline will have their enrollment statuses removed at the time of enrollment if they are new students for the current academic year. Students will be either put on suspension if they have not reached their maximum suspension period as defined in Article 41, or have their admission withdrawn with immediate effect. This excludes situations where students have explained in writing and sought permission otherwise from the Office of Academic Affairs.

For any questions regarding tuition payment, please contact the Cashier Section at extension 62122.
